I've been exactly where you are right now—overwhelmed, frustrated, and feeling like I was failing as a mother. I started my parenting journey on the wrong foot. As a mother of a strong-willed boy, I was full of expectations of how my child should behave and be.

I thought I had to be controlling, to be a good mom. Little did I know that I was only creating my own chaos and deep disconnection from my child. I was causing resistance, resentment, rebellion, and a huge strain in our relationship.

But then... it all clicked. It was a moment of realization. Gosh, how wrong I was. I learned that true connection with my child came from understanding their perspective and finding ways to make them listen and cooperate without making them feel worse about themselves. So, I transformed myself as a parent, and it changed everything.

Now, as a conscious parenting coach, I'm here to share the simple yet powerful strategies that turned our relationship completely around. Ready to have a deeper, more authentic bond with your strong-willed child?

Let's get your child cooperating and get you to enjoy parenting!
